

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface
by C. J. Macris	v
Opening Address
by P. Bourgeois	vii
Contributing Authors	xi
1. Introduction to Research on the Solar Corona
by J. W. Evans	1
2. Atomic Processes in the Solar Corona
by G. Noci	13
3. Magnetohydrodynamics and Plasma Physics of the Solar Corona
by F. Meyer	29
4. The Chromosphere-Corona Transition Region
by R. G. Athay	36
5. Coronal Magnetic Fields
by G. Newkirk, Jr.	66
6. The Extended Coronal Magnetic Field
by J. M. Wilcox	88
7. Investigations on Coronal Monochromatic Emissions in the Optical Range
by A. Dollfus	97
8. Coronal Events Observed in 5303 Å
by R. B. Dunn	114
9. The Solar Corona in the Eleven-Year Cycle
by M. Waldmeier	130
10. Coronal Active Regions and Flare-Associated Events
by J. B. Zirker	140
11. Observational Effects of Flare-Associated Waves
by S. F. Smith and K. L. Harvey	156
12. The Surges
by C. J. Macris	168
13. Relations between the Areas Index and Different Phenomena in the Chromosphere, the Corona and the Interplanetary Space
by J. Xanthakis	179
14. Models of the Quiet and Active Solar Atmosphere from Harvard OSO Data
by R. W. Noyes	192
15. The Determination of Chromospheric-Coronal Structure from Solar XUV Observations
by C. Jordan and R. Wilson	219

16. X-Ray Spectroscopy of Solar Active Regions and Flares by W. M. Neupert	237
17. A Note on a Recent Identification of the Solar Flare 1.9 Å Line Feature by K. J. H. Phillips	254
18. Recent Investigations about Solar X-Rays Emitted by the Solar Corona by Means of SOLRAD Satellites by M. Landini and B. C. Monsignori Fossi	257
19. Radio Emission of the Quiet Sun by M. Felli and G. Tofani	267
20. Solar Bursts at Decameter and Hectometer Wavelengths by M. R. Kundu	287
21. Models of the Solar Transition Region Chromosphere-Corona by G. Noci	308
22. Studies of the Outer Corona through Space Radio Astronomy by M. D. Papagiannis	317
23. Summary by L. Goldberg	333
Index of Names	342
