Introduction 1

Part I—General Considerations 3
The Importance of Presentations, E. Hodnett (Effective Presentations, 1967) 4
The Slide Talk: A Tutorial Drama in One Act, J. M. Lufkin (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, July 1968) 14
Anatomy of a Presentation, C. R. Gould (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, May 1970) 22
Tonic for Technical Talks, F. E. Ebel (Machine Design, January 21, 1965) 30

Part II—Planning and Preparation 35
Stand Up and Be Heard, M. A. Broner (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, December 1964) 36
Time to Improve Our Oral Presentations, M. Weber (Technical Communications, First Quarter 1970) 42
Analyzing the Specific Audience-Situation, W. A. Mambert (Presenting Technical Ideas: A Guide to Audience Communication, 1968) 48
Writing the Flexible Oral Presentation, L. L. Ullman (Technical Communications, Fourth Quarter 1969) 59
Oral Communication of Technical Information, R. S. Casey (IEEE Engineering Writing and Speech Professional Group National Symposium—Communication: The Modern Engineer's Function, October 1961) 63
Applying Human-Factors Principles To Oral Communications, M. Weber (Proceedings of the Society for Technical Communication 21st International Technical Communications Conference, 1974) 68

Part III—Visual Aids 71
A Survey of Visual Aids, R. M. Woelfle (1975) 72
Making Visual Communication Communicate, D. M. Davis (IEEE Engineering Writing and Speech Professional Group National Symposium—Communication: The Modern Engineer's Function, October 1961) 78
Can They See What You Say When You Speak?, E. W. Still (IRE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, January 1959) 83
Visual Aids—How to Make Them Positively Legible, C. R. Gould (IEEE Transactions on Professional Communication, June 1973) 89
A Designer's View of Presentations, T. J. Shenkman (Proceedings of the Society of Technical Writers and Publishers 14th International Technical Communications Conference, 1967) 95
The Slide as a Visual Aid, R. E. Vogt (Society of Technical Writers and Publishers Review, July 1961) 108
A Guide to Overhead Projection and Transparency Making, Scott Graphics (1974) 112
Multiple-Image Presentation of Technical Papers—The Concept, L. J. Demer and L. H. Fentnor (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, May 1970) 120

Part IV—Delivery Techniques 127
The Clinical Approach to Creative Speech, J. C. Connelly (IEEE National Engineering Writing and Speech Symposium—Engineering Writing and Speech: An Art or a Science?, September 1962) 128
Panel Discussion—Should a Talk Be Read From a Prepared Manuscript?, A. V. Loughren, H. B. Michaelson, and G. I. Robertson (IRE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, March 1958) 143
Read It Like It Is, F. E. Ebel (Machine Design, March 20, 1969) 147
⊕☆@£] ‡ # † ! ! ! The Overhead Projector, C. R. Gould (IEEE Transactions on Professional Communication, March 1972) 150
Microphone Technique, P. Taylor (IRE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, January 1959) 155
How to Handle the Q & A, R. Haakenson (Smith Kline & French Laboratories, publ. 353) 158

Part V—Multimedia Presentations 171
The Multimedia Presentation of Technical Information, A. C. L. Bishop (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, May 1970) 172
Multimedia Communication—It's Here, It's Effective, And It's Affordable, J. S. Russell (Proceedings of the Society for Technical Communication 21st International Technical Communications Conference, 1974) 176
Auf Wiedersehen, Gutenberg—Hello, McLuhan!, L. Perica (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, May 1970) 182

How to Improve Your Talk With Demonstrations, R. C. Wonson (Electronic Industries, October 1960) 187
Audio Tapes For Versatility And Low Cost, T. C. Eselgroth (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, August 1969) 191
The Medium Is the Technical Message, J. B. Colby (Technical Communications, Fourth Quarter 1969) 196

Part VI—Motion Pictures 199
Technical Communications With Motion Pictures, S. Dworkin (IEEE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, August 1969) 200
Technical Films—A Luxury or a Necessity, R. M. Murray (IRE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, March 1958) 204
Technical Motion Pictures in Science and Engineering, S. E. Strem (IRE Transactions on Engineering Writing and Speech, July 1960) 210
Anatomy of an Industrial Motion Picture, H. W. Daffer (Technical Communications, Fourth Quarter 1970) 217
Technical Films, The Shorter The Better, J. Dunker (Proceedings of the Society for Technical Communication 21st International Technical Communications Conference, 1974) 222
