PART 2
1. JAMES CLERK MAXWELL: On the Dynamical Theory of Gases (from Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London , for 1866)	23
2. LUDWIG BOLTZMANN: Further Studies on the Thermal Equilibrium of Gas Molecules (from Sitzungsberichte der kaiserlichen Akademie der Wissenschaften , Vienna, 1872)	88
3. WILLIAM THOMSON: The Kinetic Theory of the Dissipation of Energy (from Proceedings of the Royal Society of Edinburgh , for 1874)	176
4. LUDWIG BOLTZMANN: On the Relation of a General Mechanical Theorem to the Second Law of Thermodynamics (from Sitzungsberichte der kaiserlichen Akademie der Wissenschaften , Vienna, 1877)	188
5. HENRI POINCARÉ: On the Three-body Problem and the Equations of Dynamics (from Acta Mathematica , 1890).	194
6. HENRI POINCARÉ: Mechanism and Experience (from Revue de Metaphysique et de Morale , 1893)	203
7. ERNST ZERMELO: On a Theorem of Dynamics and the Mechanical Theory of Heat (from Annalen der Physik , 1896)	208

8. LUDWIG BOLTZMANN: Reply to Zermelo's Remarks on the Theory of Heat (from Annalen der Physik , 1896)	218
9. ERNST ZERMELO: On the Mechanical Explanation of Irreversible Processes (from Annalen der Physik , 1896)	229
10. LUDWIG BOLTZMANN: On Zermelo's Paper "On the Mechanical Explanation of Irreversible Processes" (from Annalen der Physik , 1897)	238
