

Essays of an Information Scientist

CONTENTS

Volume Two

date	page
2 Jan 74	1	A core research library for developing graduate schools—the 100 books most cited by researchers.
9 Jan 74	6	Selecting the all-time citation classics; here are the fifty most cited papers for 1961–1972. (Highly cited articles. 6.)
16 Jan 74	10	Biomedical and health care systems research should be financed from social security and health insurance funds; a permanent lobby could swing it.
23 Jan 74	13	Journal citation studies. 6. Journal of Clinical Investigation vs New England Journal of Medicine .
30 Jan 74	17	Journal citation studies. 7. Journal of American Medical Association vs New England Journal of Medicine .
6 Feb 74	21	The second fifty papers most cited from 1961–1972. (Highly cited articles. 7.)
13 Feb 74	26	ISI is studying the structure of science through co-citation analysis.
Reprint	28	H. Small. Co-citation in the scientific literature; a new measure of the relationship between two documents. J. Amer. Soc. Inform. Sci. 24:265–69, 1973.
20 Feb 74	32	What's a nice boy like you doing in a business like this? or, what it takes to be an information scientist.
27 Feb 74	35	Copyright and research funding have some interesting points in common.
6 Mar 74	37	A list of 100 most cited 'chemical' articles. (Highly cited articles. 8.)
13 Mar 74	45	Management training for scientists?
20 Mar 74	47	What are facts (data) and what is information?

Contents

- 27 Mar 74 49 A new ISI prize-winning film: Putting scientific information to work.
- 3 Apr 74 51 Towards a Technology Citation Index and weekly subject indexes for all CCs.
- 10 Apr 74 55 The mysteries of ISI's international OATS library service revealed (again)!
- 17 Apr 74 58 The politics of citation and citations in politics.
- 24 Apr 74 60 Identifying paradigms in science.
- 1 May 74 62 The citation index as a subject index.
- 8 May 74 65 Some thoughts on the peculiar economic significance of the information revolution.
- 15 May 74 68 Operation or cooperation—what should be the UN's objective in regards to scientific research?
- 22 May 74 70 On routes to immortality.
- 29 May 74 73 Expanded ISI Press Digest helps bridge gaps within the social sciences.
- 5 June 74 75 The unanswered questions of science (TUQOS).
- 12 June 74 77 The responsibility and role of chemical information scientists in solving today's crises.
- 19 June 74 80 Errors—theirs, ours and yours.
- 26 June 74 82 Indexing books—small and large loopholes.
- 3 July 74 86 Journal citation studies. 8. Some highly cited articles from highly cited general medical and clinical journals. (Highly cited articles. 9.)
- 10 July 74 94 'Computer music' illustrates a confusion of goals—instant virtuosity or disciplined satisfaction.
- 17 July 74 97 Journal citation studies. 9. Highly cited pediatric journals and articles. (Highly cited articles. 10.)
- 24 July 74 102 Journal citation studies. 10. Geology and geophysics. (Highly cited articles. 11.)
- 31 July 74 107 Citations and games scientists play; or, the citation index game.

Contents

- 7 Aug 74 110 Bought term papers: symptom or challenge, or using term papers to teach.
- 14 Aug 74 114 Journal citation studies. 11. Journal of Geophysical Research. (Highly cited articles. 12.)
- 21 Aug 74 118 Current Book Contents settles in; progress report on a resoundingly successful experiment!
- 28 Aug 74 120 Journal citation studies. 12. Astrophysical Journal and its Supplements. (Highly cited articles. 13.)
- 4 Sept 74 125 Dream and reality in science—the loneliness of the long-distance runner.
- 11 Sept 74 128 Journal citation studies. 13. Acta Crystallographica. (Highly cited articles. 14.)
- 18 Sept 74 134 Historiography, librarianship, and the history of science.
- Reprint 136 E. Garfield. Historiographs, librarianship and the history of science. From: Toward a theory of librarianship; papers in honor of Jesse Hawk Shera, ed. C.H. Rawski (Metuchen, N.J.: Scarecrow Press, 1960), p. 380–402.
- Reprint 151 E. Garfield. Putting our money where our needs are. [The government role in information science]. Bull. Amer. Soc. Inform. Sci. 1:10 passim, June/July 1974.
- 2 Oct 74 154 Journal citation studies. 14. Wherein we observe that physicists cite different physics journals than other people.
- 9 Oct 74 158 Political scientists and scientist-politicians.
- 16 Oct 74 160 Journal citation studies. 15. Cancer journals and articles. (Highly cited articles. 15.)
- 23 Oct 74 168 Concerning constancy, friendship, and mutual acceptance; or, 'If you need me, I'll be there.'
- 30 Oct 74 170 So you wanted more review articles—ISI's new Index to Scientific Reviews (ISR) will help you find them.
- 6 Nov 74 172 Let's erect a new Tower of Babel!
- 13 Nov 74 175 Why don't we have science reviews?
- 20 Nov 74 177 Weekly subject indexes now in all editions of Current Contents.
- 27 Nov 74 179 Journal citation studies. 16. Clinical Chemistry and Clinica Chimica Acta.

Contents

- 4 Dec 74 184 Some comments on pure and applied research—stimulated by a list of works cited by applied chemists.
- 11 Dec 74 188 Was the Science Citation Index concept inevitable?
- Reprint 189 J. Lederberg. Preface to Genetics Citation Index.
From: Genetics Citation Index, experimental citation indexes to genetics with special emphasis on human genetics.
(Philadelphia: Institute for Scientific Information. 1963), p. iii.
- 18 Dec 74 190 Bibliographies, citations, and citation abstracts.
- 25 Dec 74 192 Journal citation studies. 17. Journal self-citation rates—there's a difference.
- 6 Jan 75 195 The who and why of ISI.
- Reprint 197 S. Lazerow. Institute for Scientific Information.
From: Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science,
ed. E. Kent (New York: Marcel Dekker, 1974), vol. 12, p. 8
- 13 Jan 75 205 Journal citation studies. 18. Highly cited botany journals.
- 20 Jan 75 210 Highly cited articles from plant physiology journals.
(Highly cited articles. 16.)
- 27 Jan 75 216 Highly cited botanical articles from botanical and other journals.
(Highly cited articles. 17.)
- 3 Feb 75 221 We've added a Weekly Substructure Index to Current Abstracts of Chemistry and Index Chemicus.
- 10 Feb 75 223 Don't kill us with kindness—COMPLAIN!
- 17 Feb 75 226 Page charges; for-profit and non-profit journals; and freedom of the scientific press.
- 24 Feb 75 229 Uniformity of editorial policy on titles in citations will aid referees, librarians, and authors.
- 3 Mar 75 231 Journal citation studies. 19. Psychology and behavior journals.
- 10 Mar 75 236 Timeliness and timelessness.
- 17 Mar 75 238 Degrees of absurdity.
- 24 Mar 75 240 'Come blow your horn'; why we're proud of the Social Sciences Citation Index.

- Reprint 318 E. Garfield. Is there a future for the scientific journal?
Sci-Tech News 29:42-44, 1975.
- 11 Aug 75 323 Why initials instead of first names in ISI's indexes?
- 18 Aug 75 325 Current Contents bridging the generation gap.
- 25 Aug 75 327 Are information services worth the money?
- Reprint 328 A. E. Cawkell & E. Garfield. The cost-effectiveness and cost benefits of commercial information services.
From: Chemical Information Systems, ed. J. Ash & E. Hyde (New York: Wiley/Halsted, 1975), p. 73-85.
- 1 Sept 75 335 Genetic engineering—too dangerous to continue or too important to discontinue?
- 8 Sept 75 342 Current Contents—all inclusive or personalized?
Using ASCA is a reasonable compromise!
- 15 Sept 75 343 Current controversy.
- 22 Sept 75 345 When browsers become retrievers, CC's natural-language WSIs help.
- 29 Sept 75 347 CC's weekly subject indexes can help you complete the incomplete in references, bibliographies, and journal coverage.
- 6 Oct 75 349 Ever think of Current Contents as a newspaper?
- 13 Oct 75 351 Audience of one—Jacob Bronowski.
- 20 Oct 75 354 Clusters and classification.
- Reprint 356 E. Garfield, M. V. Malin & H. Small. A system for automatic classification of scientific literature
J. Indian Inst. Science 57:61-74, 1975.
- 27 Oct 75 366 Using the SCI to illuminate scotophobin.
- 3 Nov 75 371 The purpose of the ISI Press Digest or, 'Life is short and information endless.'
- 10 Nov 75 374 Highly cited articles. 20. Articles from Russian journals.
- 17 Nov 75 378 What's in a name? If it's a journal's name, sometimes there's too much!

Contents

- 24 Nov 75 382 Of smiling dogs and laughing people and why they can't tickle themselves.
- 1 Dec 75 386 Of conferences and reviews.
- 8 Dec 75 390 Libraries need a copyright clearinghouse—ISI has one they can use!
- 15 Dec 75 393 Jazz transcriptions will blow your mind!
- 22 Dec 75 396 The 'obliteration phenomenon' in science—and the advantage of being obliterated!
- 399 All the I's at ISI.
- 5 Jan 76 402 ISI's chemical information system goes marching on!
- 12 Jan 76 404 Gatekeepers in science.
- 19 Jan 76 407 Does the reading list make the person?
- 26 Jan 76 409 Journal citation studies. 23. French journals—what they cite and what cites them.
- Reprint 415 E. Garfield. Citation analysis, mechanical translation of chemical nomenclature, and the macrostructure of science. J. Chem. Inform. & Comp. Sci. 15:153–55, 1975.
- 9 Feb 76 419 Is the ratio between number of citations and publications cited a true constant?
- 16 Feb 76 422 The 1973 articles most cited in 1973.
(Highly cited articles. 21.)
- 23 Feb 76 426 The 1974 articles most cited in 1974.
(Highly cited articles. 22.)
- 1 Mar 76 430 Journal citation studies. 24. Japanese journals—what they cite and what cites them.
- 8 Mar 76 436 Certified literature searchers can help keep scientists honest!
- 15 Mar 76 438 Anonymity in refereeing? Maybe—but anonymity in authorship? No!
- 22 Mar 76 441 Characteristics of highly cited publications in the engineering sciences.
- 29 Mar 76 447 Current Contents paper and other problems—your priorities and ours.

Contents

- 5 Apr 76 449 When academics become salesmen.
