OPENING

Welcoming Addresses

P.P. Canisius, Chairman, Organizing Committee, F.R.G.	3
H. Engler, Minister for Science and Arts, F.R.G.	7
W. Löhner, UNESCO Representative, France	8
M.W. Hill, FID President, U.K.	11
H.P. Geh, IFLA President, F.R.G.	13

Keynote Address

Information Technology and Cultural Diversity T. Yamamoto, Japan ( only abstract available )	17

COMPLEX SYSTEMS

Chairperson: C.-C. Chen, U.S.A.

The Status and Development of Czechoslovak National Centre for Automated Data Exchange / NCADE Z. Vanek, Czechoslovakia	21
A Supplementary MIS to an Online Integrated Library System at the Université du Québec à Rimouski G. Mercure, Canada	27
MIKROPOLIS as Idea Processor and Textbase Management System B. Lutes-Schaab, R. McCall and W. Schuler, F.R.G.	35

The Use of a Microcomputer as a User-Interface Manager in a Large Information Retrieval System D. Matei and B. Teodorescu, Rumania	44
The (IV+V) System Software Package: Technical Description I. Mistrik, G. Kerschhacker and H. Oberhuber, F.R.G.	52
An Augmented Microcomputer for Relational Database Implementation M.R. Muraszkiwicz, Poland	62
Computer-Generated Subject Oriented Data-Base Z. Levy, Israel	71
 SPECIFIC APPLICATION IN LIBRARIES 1 Chairperson: K.-D. Lehmann, F.R.G.
Microcomputers in Academic Libraries: Current Applications &amp; Future Impact W.R. Converse, Canada	83
SIAS-Siemens Library Lending System for the Siemens PC A. Hahn, F.R.G.	91
OCLC M300 in a Large Research Library I. Morita, Japan	96
The Online Information System of the University of Freiburg Library as Part of a Local Area Network. A Case Study H.-A. Ruppert, F.R.G.	100
A Survey on the Use of Micros in Special Libraries T. Krieger, U.S.A.	106
Using a Micro-Computer to Do Research and Keep Control of the Job E. Nyang, U.S.A.	113
Microcomputer Based Union Catalogue of Periodical Holdings: BHEL Experience V.V.V. Satyanarayana, India	117

APPLICATION SOFTWAREChairperson: R. Albrecht, Austria*

- Satisfying the Requirements of the Information Broker
R. Makay, F.R.G. 123
- PERCICO, a New User-Friendly System for Periodicals Control and Circulation
H.-E. Malmberg, Sweden 131
- Design of Personal Information Retrieval Systems
M. Agosti and F. Spilotro, Italy 134
- A Software Package for In-House Searching of Downloaded Data
J.A. Large and C.J. Armstrong, U.K. 142
- SOMA – A System for Personal Notes Retrieval
B. Teodorescu and D. Matei, Rumania 147
- The Application of Mikro Polydoc in the International Reference Centre for Community Water Supply and Sanitation (IRC)
C.H. Dietvorst, The Netherlands 153
- Use of Microcomputers in Australian and Nigerian Libraries
J. Italia Sanober, India 160
- DATALIB: A Package on Personal Computer for Libraries
S. Rovagnati, Italy 163
- EDP-Microfilm-Integrated-Retrieval (EMIR)
J. Stillger, F.R.G. 168
- The Use of a Chinese Card in Multi-Language Information Processing
R. Wong, Hong Kong 175

EXISTING SYSTEMSChairperson: Z. Levy, Israel*

- Micro-Computer for Managing of Banana Bibliographical Information
R. Beccera, Panama 185

A Reference-Librarian Model for Computer-Aided Library Instruction R.D. Binkley and J.R. Parrott, Canada	190
Participation in Computer Conferencing from a Workstation W. Krumholz, F.R.G.	197
Using a Microcomputer for the Administration of the Interlibrary Loan, Mainly Requests for Photocopies F. Noel-Lambot and A. Somville, Belgium	200
Associative Retrieval System Z. Yakubovitz, Israel	209
Existing Systems – Experiences and Implications for Future Developments W. Koch, Austria	215

SPECIFIC APPLICATION IN LIBRARIES 2

Chairperson: A. Wysocki, The Netherlands

Using Microcomputers to Provide Library Services to the Invisible User of an Academic Library L. Wert, U.S.A.	221
Retrospective Data Conversion with or without the Use of Micro-Computers G.A. Kósa, Australia	229
Improvements to Services and Access to Management Information Gained by Introduction of a Multi-User Microcomputer System S. Hills, U.K.	237
The Development of a Multi-User Microcomputer System for Small Libraries H. Dyer and P. Leggate, U.K.	244
The Development of the National Library Automation System – Requirements and Possibilities L. Kovačević, Yugoslavia	251
Microcomputers and Organisational Change – The UK Public Library Experience C. Batt, U.K.	257

ELECTRONIC PUBLISHINGChairperson: R.L. Hunsucker, The Netherlands*

- Electronic Publishing and the Challenge of Microcomputers
O. Standera, Canada 267
- Electronic Publishing of Technical and Scientific Texts
W. Gewecke, F.R.G. 277
- Bibliographic Description of Articles in a Full-Text Database
in No-Journal Era
Y. Nakamura, Japan 285
- Floppy Discs – A New Publishing Experience
G. Robbie and D. Barlow, U.K. 291
- Text Entry Systems for Scientific Authors
M. Krüger, F.R.G. 295

APPLICATION IN SPECIFIC DISCIPLINES 1Chairperson: A. Helal, F.R.G.*

- Development of an Inter-Institution Cooperative Documentation System
with a Minicomputer Network Structure
D. Seydel, F.R.G. 299
- Factual-Type Online Databases. Downloading and Local Processing of Statistical Data with AREMOS
J.L. Staud, F.R.G. 308
- Possibilities of Microcomputers Application in Czechoslovak Water Management Network
P. Stančiková, Czechoslovakia 320
- A Project of Shared Cataloguing on Micro-Computers for Theological Libraries
R.-F. Poswick and G. Servais, Belgium 327
- On the Way of Developing Knowledge-Based Systems in the Social Sciences
H. Mueller, F.R.G. 330

- Microcomputers of Service to a Database System of Plant Genetic Resources
M. Waldman and S. Weitz-Ingber, Israel (only abstract available) 335

DECISION MAKING CRITERIA AND ECONOMIC ASPECTS

Chairperson: P. Simmons, Canada

- Automation Support for the Management Function in Libraries and Information Centres
J.E. Rush, U.S.A. 339
- Obtaining Qualified and Up-to-Date Information on Microcomputers in Information, Documentation and Libraries
H.G. Koerner, F.R.G. 347
- Man Power Planning for a Library or an Information Centre: A Microcomputer Based Operational and Instructional System
F.J. Devadason, India 354
- Micro-Computers in Information Management: A Sectoral Study in Portuguese Industry
J.T. Castro, A.M.R. Correia and R. Magalhaes, Portugal 362
- Automation of a University Medical Library on a Micro-Computer Network: The Beer Sheva Experience
L. Frenkiel and B. Aronson, Israel 366

EDUCATION AND TRAINING 1

Chairperson: D.B. Cleveland, U.S.A.

- Microcomputer Programming in the Information Science Curriculum
D.B. Cleveland and A.D. Cleveland, U.S.A. 373
- Online Databases and the Application of Micro-Computers in Secondary Schools
P. Tieleman and Ch. Wolf, The Netherlands 379
- Microcomputers in the Curricula of the Africa Regional Centre for Information Science (ARCIS)
W.O. Aiyepoku and G.A. Alabi, Nigeria 388

- Micro-Computer Laboratories in Library Schools: A Case Study
T. Crowley, U.S.A. 397

IMAGE PROCESSING

Chairperson: D.J. Watson, U.K.

- The Substitutibility of Images for Textual Description of Archival Materials in an MS-DOS Environment
M.E. Rorvig, U.S.A. 407

- Transmission and Display of Text and Graphics Illustrated by the Example of Patent Information
W. Niedermeyr, F.R.G. 416

EXPERT SYSTEMS

Chairperson: R. Kuhlen, F.R.G.

- KOFIS: An Expert System for Information Retrieval in Offices
H.-J. Appellrath, M. Ester, H. Jasper and A. Ultsch, Switzerland 427

- Graphical Interaction with a Full-Text Oriented Information System:
The Retrieval Component of the End User Interface TOPOGRAPHIC
U. Thiel and R. Hammwoehner, F.R.G. 434

- Software Tools for Information and Library Microcomputer
Expert Systems
M. Muraszkievicz and H. Rybiński, Poland 445

Keynote Address

- Between Networks and Independent Solutions within a World of Open Systems
N. Szyperski, F.R.G. (abstract and paper not available) 454

NETWORKS

Chairperson: J. Michel, France

- Local Area Network or Multi-User System: Two Approaches to Library
Automation Using Micro-Computers
M. Grieves, U.K. (only abstract available) 457

Infolink and Dialout – For Information Retrieval B. Stanley, Sweden	458
A Technological Information Project in Argentina D.A. Freschi, Argentina	463
Computerization of Libraries and Documentation Centres: The ESAMI Case A. Musana and M. Lewanika, Tanzania	466
A Network of Personal Documentation Systems V.H. Haase, Austria	473

SYSTEMS REQUIREMENTS

Chairperson: H.-J. Schneider, F.R.G.

Planning, Implementing and Managing the Electronic Library, or The Electronic Library Manager's Guide to Life D.I. Raitt, The Netherlands	479
Selecting Database Management Software for Micro-Computers in Libraries and Information Units K.A.O. Pieskä, Finland	490
ALLEGRO – Handling Bibliographic Data on Microcomputers B. Eversberg, F.R.G.	497
Problems with Information Systems on Small Computers M. Kozarinsky and M. Khalepski, Israel	503
The Structure and Usage of a "Referation" Database on Microcomputers for Personal Document Management I. Asai, Japan	510
Storage and Retrieval of Text, Graphics and Images W.-D. Guercke, F.R.G.	518
Illusions of Grandeur D. Shinnors-Kennedy and D. Tocher, Ireland	524
Use of Microcomputer Software for Discipline Specific Searching C. Mundy and D. Meyer, U.S.A.	531

SPECIAL PROBLEMS IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIESChairperson: M.H. Wali, Nigeria*

- Finding the Right Role for Microcomputers in Information Systems in Developing Countries
T. Woodward, U.K. 537
- The Application of Micro-Computers in Libraries:
A Case Study on Brazil
N. Figueiredo, Brazil 543
- Problems and Possibilities of Computer Application in Library
Automation and Information Work in Nigeria
F.N. Ubogu and D.K. Gupta, Nigeria 549
- Micro-Computers and Libraries in Developing Countries:
The Egyptian Experience
U. El-Said Mahmoud Aly, Egypt (only abstract available) 556
- The Use of Microcomputers in Libraries with Special Reference to Problems Encountered in Developing Countries
J. Lankage, Sri Lanka 557
- UNESCO's Regional Energy Information Networks and their Associated Computer Applications
C.M. Gottschalk, France (only abstract available) 564
- Application of Microcomputers in Developing Countries:
Some Problems
I. Rua, Colombia 565
- Issues in the Application of Micro-Computers in Information,
Documentation and Libraries in English-Speaking West Africa
M. Adeyemi, Nigeria (only abstract available) 569
- Developing Countries and Library Networks: Dial-Up Facilities Using Microcomputers as an Alternative to Permanent Tie-Ins
M. Matza and H. Roman, Venezuela 570
- Information Retrieval for Micro-Computers
H. Vega Posada, Peru (only abstract available) 576

- Introducing Micro-Computers for National Bibliographic Control
Activities in Developing Countries
T.E. Mlaki, Tanzania 577

EDUCATION AND TRAINING 2

Chairperson: R. Kuhlen, F.R.G.

- Development and Application of Micro-Computer Software in a Postgraduate Course for Information Transfer and Management
R. Kuhlen, F.R.G. 587

- Microcomputers in Library Education
N.S. Yaghmai, U.S.A. 605

- The Pan African Documentation and Information System's Experience in Education and Training for Libraries, Information Professionals and Users in Africa
F. Inganji, Ethiopia 612

- Information Retrieval Methods Teaching for Everybody
R. Coll-Vinent, Spain (abstract) 616

- Some Thoughts on Training Programmes for Modernising Library and Information Systems and Services in India
T.N. Rajan, India 617

- Moving from Mainframe to Micros: Applications Programming for Library and Information Science
C.H. Davis, U.S.A. (only abstract available) 622

Keynote Address

- Microcomputer-Based Workstations: An Opportunity to Develop the European Information Market
C. Jansen van Rosendaal, Luxemburg 623

WORKSTATIONS

Chairperson: P.L. Noerr, U.K.

- Online Searching with Microcomputers — Advantages for the User
C.-D. Siems, F.R.G. 637

- Microcomputer Support for Retrospective Conversion
K.M. Hays, U.S.A. 643
- The Micro Work Station as an Information Tool
D.H. Elazar, Israel 649
- Interactive Videodisc Technology and Microcomputers:
A Case Presentation on Project Emperor-I
C.-C. Chen, U.S.A. 657

APPLICATION IN SPECIFIC DISCIPLINES 2

Chairperson: C. Keren, Israel

- National Feed Database in Australia
H.T. Ostrowski-Meissner, N. Jackson and N.H. Westwood, Australia 665
- Food and Nutrition Microcomputer Demonstration Center
R.C. Frank, U.S.A. 672
- ALPHA4000: The Input of Musicological and Musical Information in a Database
C. Schnell, Switzerland 675
- Microcomputers in Archives: Requirements and Consequences
A. Menne-Haritz, F.R.G. 684
- Serials Control and the Microcomputer in the Library
T. Williams, U.S.A. 690
- Micro-Computer for IFIC Activities
L. Robles-Austriaco, Thailand 695
- The Application of Micro-Computers in a Computerized Management Information System on Standardization
P.V. Nesterov, U.S.S.R. 700
- Development of a Prototype Network for the Exchange of Archival and Bibliographic Information between Holocaust Documentation Centers in the USA and Abroad
B. Chamberlin, L.F. Karr and M. Courtot, U.S.A. 705

- Application of Microcomputer in Systematic Biology: A Case Study
C.C. Parmar, India 710
- Frequency Distributions in Scientometrics and Bibliometrics
A. Schubert and W. Glänzel, Hungary 715

DATA BASE MANAGEMENT

Chairperson: Y. Nakamura, Japan

- Using DBase III to Manage Continuations
L.S. Jackson and R. Aluri, U.S.A. 723
- TINman: Innovative Microcomputer Information Retrieval
K.T. Bivins-Noerr and P.L. Noerr, U.K. 731
- Application Development Using the IV+V System Software Package
I. Mistrik, G. Kerschhacker, E. Bertha and H. Billing, F.R.G. 738
- Microcomputers and Operational Necessity: The Experience of the National Photography Collection
A.J. Birrell, Canada 746
- CD-ROM a New Way of Information Transfer
W. Müller, F.R.G. 752
- Checking Rules with SNOBOL 4
P. Bantzer, F.R.G. 756
- Simple Information System Comprasing Abilities of IRS and DBMS
Z.M. Nowicki and J.J. Solak, Poland 762
- The Work of the Information Department of Central Technical Library at the University Edvard Kardelj of Ljubljana
M. Ostanek, Yugoslavia 770

Closing Address

- P.P. Canisius, Chairman, Organizing Committee, F.R.G. 773
