PART I: THE CORRESPONDENCE PRINCIPLE

Introduction	3
1 On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra	3
2 Development of the Correspondence Principle	4
3 Formulation of the Correspondence Principle	5
4 On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra, Parts I and II	6
5 On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra, Part III (1918, 1922)	8
6 On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra, Part IV	9
7 Correspondence connected with the writing and completion of the work On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra	10
8 Problems of the Atom and the Molecule. Lecture delivered in Leiden (25 April 1919)	15
9 Meetings with Sommerfeld in Lund and Copenhagen (September 1919)	16
10 On the Program of the Newer Atomic Physics (2 Dec 1919)	19
11 On the Interaction between Light and Matter (13 Feb 1920)	20
12 On the Series Spectra of the Elements (27 April 1920)	21
13 Landé's lecture before the Physical Society of Copenhagen (October 1920)	23
14 Dedication of the Institute for Theoretical Physics (3 March 1921)	24
15 Preface to the German translation of Bohr's early papers on atomic structure (1921)	27
16 On the Question of the Polarization of Radiation in the Quantum Theory (1921)	27
17 Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Problems. Report to the Third Solvay Council (April 1921)	28

CONTENTS

18	Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Problems in General (1921)	36
19	The Effect of Electric and Magnetic Fields on Spectral Lines. Seventh Guthrie Lecture (1922)	37
20	On the Selection Principle of the Quantum Theory (1922)	38
21	The Difference between the Series Spectra of Isotopes (1922)	38
22	On the Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Structure. I. The Fundamental Postulates (1923, 1924)	39
23	On the Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Structure. II. Theory of the Series Spectra (1923)	41
24	British Association Meeting in Liverpool (1923)	44
25	Lectures in America (1923)	45
I	First Indication of the Generalization of the Correspondence Principle. Draft	47
II	Unused Page Proofs to "On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra", Part II (1918)	53
III	On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra, Parts I-III (1918-1922)	65
IV	On the Quantum Theory of Line Spectra, Part IV (fragmentary drafts)	185
V	Problems of the Atom and the Molecule (1919)	201
VI	Speech of Appreciation to Sommerfeld (1919)	217
VII	On the Program of the Newer Atomic Physics (1919). Translation of fragments	221
VIII	On the Interaction between Light and Matter (1920). Translation	227
IX	On the Series Spectra of the Elements (1920). Translation	241
X	Dedication of the Institute for Theoretical Physics (1921)	283
	Danish text	284
	Translation	293
XI	Foreword to German Translation of Early Papers on Atomic Structure (1921)	303
	German text	308
	Translation	325
XII	On the Question of the Polarization of Radiation in the Quantum Theory	339
	Zur Frage der Polarisierung der Strahlung in der Quantentheorie (1921)	341
	Translation	350
XIII	Report to Third Solvay Council (1921)	357
	1 The Third Solvay Council: Atoms and Electrons (1921)	359
	2 On the Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Problems, by N. Bohr	364
	3 Supplementary Report by P. Ehrenfest and Discussion of Bohr's and Ehrenfest's Reports	381
XIV	Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Problems in General (1921)	397
XV	The Effect of Electric and Magnetic Fields on Spectral Lines (1922, 1923)	415
XVI	On the Selection Principle of the Quantum Theory (1922)	447
XVII	The Difference between the Series Spectra of Isotopes (1922)	453
XVIII	On the Application of the Quantum Theory to Atomic Structure. Part I: The Fundamental Postulates (1924)	455
