

Contents

|  |      |
|--|------|
| CONTRIBUTORS   | xiii |
| Alexander Dalgarno: Life and Personality                          | 1    |
| David R. Bates and George A. Victor                               |      |
| Alexander Dalgarno: Contributions to Atomic and Molecular Physics | 7    |
| Neal Lane   |      |
| I. Introduction  | 7    |
| II. Atomic and Molecular Structure                                       | 8    |
| III. Atomic and Molecular Interactions                                   | 12   |
| IV. Atomic and Molecular Collisions                                      | 14   |
| V. Summary   | 18   |
| References   | 19   |
| Alexander Dalgarno: Contributions to Aeronomy                     | 23   |
| Michael B. McElroy  |      |
| I. Introduction  | 23   |
| II. Selected Contributions   | 23   |
| References   | 27   |
| Alexander Dalgarno: Contributions to Astrophysics                 | 29   |
| David A. Williams   |      |
| I. Introduction  | 29   |
| II. Selected Areas of Contribution                                       | 29   |

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| III. Dalgarno's Wider Contributions to Astrophysics  | 33        |
| References   | 34        |
|    |           |
| Electric Dipole Polarizability Measurements   | 37 |
| Thomas M. Miller and Benjamin Bederson  |           |
| I. Introduction  | 37        |
| II. Bulk Measurements  | 40        |
| III. Atomic Beam Measurements  | 42        |
| IV. Conclusions  | 56        |
| Acknowledgment   | 58        |
| References   | 58        |
|    |           |
| Flow Tube Studies of Ion-Molecule Reactions   | 61 |
| Eldon Ferguson  |           |
| I. Introduction  | 61        |
| II. Ion-Molecule Reactions at Thermal Energies   | 63        |
| III. Negative Ion Kinetics   | 69        |
| IV. Vibrational Energy Transfer in Ion-Neutral Collisions  | 71        |
| V. The $\text{O}_2^+ + \text{CH}_4 \rightarrow \text{H}_2\text{COOH}^+ + \text{H}$ Reaction:A Detailed Mechanistic Study | 76        |
| VI. Conclusions  | 78        |
| Acknowledgment   | 79        |
| References   | 79        |
|    |           |
| Differential Scattering in He-He and He+-He Collisionsat KeV Energies                                 | 83 |
| R. F. Stebbings   |           |
| I. Introduction  | 83        |
| II. He-He Collisions at Small Angles   | 84        |
| III. He + + He Collisions at Small Angles   | 91        |
| IV. He-He Scattering at Large Angles   | 95        |
| V. Conclusion  | 98        |
| Acknowledgment   | 98        |
| References   | 98        |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Atomic Excitation in Dense Plasmas                         | 101 |
| Jon C. Weisheit  |     |
| I. Introduction   | 101 |
| II. Characteristics of Dense Plasmas                              | 102 |
| III. Excitation Models for Dense Plasmas                          | 115 |
| IV. Conclusion  | 127 |
| Acknowledgments   | 129 |
| References  | 129 |
|   |     |
| Pressure Broadening and Laser-Induced Spectral Line Shapes | 133 |
| Kenneth M. Sando and Shih-I Chu                            |     |
| I. Atomic Line Shape Theory in the Weak Field Limit               | 133 |
| II. Spectral Line Shapes in Strong Fields                         | 146 |
| Acknowledgments   | 160 |
| References  | 160 |
|   |     |
| Model-Potential Methods                                    | 163 |
| G. Laughlin and G. A. Victor                               |     |
| I. Introduction   | 163 |
| II. Development of Model Potentials                               | 164 |
| III. Applications of Model Potentials                             | 173 |
| IV. Molecular Model Potentials                                    | 186 |
| References  | 190 |
|   |     |
| Z-Expansion Methods  | 195 |
| M. Cohen   |     |
| I. Introduction   | 195 |
| II. $Z^{-1}$ -Expansion of Schrödinger's Equation                 | 197 |
| III. The Screening Approximation                                  | 204 |
| IV. The Hartree-Fock Approximation                                | 206 |
| V. Some Representative Results                                    | 210 |
| VI. Summary and Conclusions                                       | 219 |
| References  | 219 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Schwinger Variational Methods   | 221 |
| Deborah Kay Watson  |     |
| I. Introduction  | 221 |
| II. Early Development  | 222 |
| III. Studies by Nuclear Physicists   | 228 |
| IV. The Schwinger Variational Method in Atomicand Molecular Physics          | 230 |
| V. Summary   | 247 |
| References   | 247 |
|    |     |
| Fine-Structure Transitions in Proton-Ion Collisions                       | 251 |
| R. H. G. Reid   |     |
| I. Introduction  | 251 |
| II. Semiclassical Calculations   | 255 |
| III. Close-Coupled Quantal Calculations  | 261 |
| IV. Summary  | 265 |
| References   | 265 |
|    |     |
| Electron Impact Excitation  | 267 |
| R. J. W. Henry and A. E. Kingston   |     |
| I. Introduction  | 267 |
| II. The Close-Coupling Approximation   | 268 |
| III. Convergence of the Close-Coupling Expansion                                 | 272 |
| IV. The Effect of Resonances on Electron Excitation Rates                        | 282 |
| V. Inner Shell Excitation Autoionization   | 289 |
| VI. Resonances in Cu   | 298 |
| References   | 300 |
|    |     |
| Recent Advances in the Numerical Calculation ofIonization Amplitudes | 303 |
| Christopher Bottcher  |     |
| I. Introduction  | 303 |
| II. Formal Solutions of the Stationary Schrödinger Equation                      | 305 |
| III. The Boundary Function Method  | 308 |
| IV. Path Integral and Semiclassical Methods                                      | 311 |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| V. Calculations on a Two-Dimensional Model   | 315        |
| VI. Calculations in Three Dimensions   | 320        |
| Acknowledgment   | 321        |
| References   | 321        |
| The Numerical Solution of the Equations ofMolecular Scattering                                     | 323 |
| A. C. Allison   |            |
| I. Introduction  | 323        |
| II. Numerical Methods  | 324        |
| III. Close-Coupled Equations   | 327        |
| IV. Solution Following Methods   | 331        |
| V. Potential Following Methods   | 334        |
| VI. Adiabatic and Diabatic Representations   | 336        |
| VII. Propagators   | 337        |
| VIII. Summary  | 338        |
| References   | 339        |
| High Energy Charge Transfer   | 343 |
| B. H. Bransden and D. P. Dewangan   |            |
| I. Introduction  | 343        |
| II. Transition Amplitudes  | 345        |
| III. Distorted Wave Series   | 348        |
| IV. First Order Models   | 349        |
| V. The Continuum Distorted Wave, Vainshtein Presnyakov andSobelman, Glauber and Symmetrical Eikonal Models | 357        |
| VI. Second Order Theories  | 363        |
| VII. Relativistic Electron Capture   | 369        |
| Acknowledgment   | 371        |
| References   | 371        |
| Relativistic Random-Phase Approximation   | 375 |
| W. R. Johnson   |            |
| I. Introduction  | 375        |
| II. Derivation of the RRPA Equations   | 376        |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| III. Reduction to Radial Equations                   | 379 |
| IV. Basis Set Expansion of the Radial RRPA Equations | 386 |
| Acknowledgment                                       | 390 |
| References   | 390 |

Relativistic Sturmian and Finite Basis Set Methods in Atomic Physics 393

G. W. F. Drake and S. P. Goldman

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| I. Introduction  | 393 |
| II. Variational Representation of the Dirac Equation   | 396 |
| III. Relativistic Sturmian Basis Sets  | 402 |
| IV. Test Calculations with Relativistic Sturmian Basis Sets andComparisons with B-Spline Methods | 404 |
| V. Variational Dirac-Hartree-Fock Calculations   | 410 |
| VI. Suggestions for Future Work  | 414 |
| Acknowledgment   |     |
| References   | 414 |

Dissociation Dynamics of Polyatomic Molecules 417

T. Uzer

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| I. Introduction  | 417 |
| II. Unimolecular Reaction Rate Theories  | 418 |
| III. Semiclassical and Quasiclassical Trajectory Methods   | 422 |
| IV. Unimolecular Dissociation through State Selection  | 424 |
| V. Overtone-Excited Processes  | 425 |
| VI. Case Study: Overtone-Induced Dissociation ofHydrogen Peroxide—Experiment and Theory            | 426 |
| VII. Dissociation through Electronically ExcitedStates—Interface Between Photodissociation and IVR | 428 |
| VIII. Unimolecular Quantum Dynamics andMolecular Dissociation                                      | 431 |
| IX. Concluding Remarks   | 431 |
| Acknowledgments  | 432 |
| References   | 433 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Photodissociation Processes in Diatomic Molecules of Astrophysical Interest | 437 |
| Kate P. Kirby and Ewine F. van Dishoeck                                     |     |
| I. Introduction  | 437 |
| II. Direct Photodissociation   | 442 |
| III. Spontaneous Radiative Dissociation  | 453 |
| IV. Predissociation  | 456 |
| V. Coupled States Photodissociation  | 464 |
| VI. Near-Threshold Photodissociation   | 469 |
| VII. Concluding Remarks  | 473 |
| Acknowledgments  | 473 |
| References   | 473 |
|    |     |
| The Abundances and Excitation of Interstellar Molecules                     | 477 |
| John H. Black   |     |
| I. Introduction  | 477 |
| II. Molecular Hydrogen   | 479 |
| III. Ion-Molecule Chemistry  | 483 |
| IV. Chemistry of Shock-Heated Gas  | 495 |
| V. The CH + Problem   | 497 |
| VI. The Excitation of Interstellar CN  | 501 |
| VII. Models of Interstellar Clouds   | 503 |
| VIII. Summary  | 505 |
| Acknowledgments  | 505 |
| References   | 506 |
|    |     |
| Index   | 513 |
| Contents of Previous Volumes   | 561 |