

CONTENTS

---

Introduction
Acknowledgments

Part 1 Poster Previews .....	1
Poster Preview: Example 1 .....	2
Poster Preview: Example 2 .....	12
Quick Guide 1: Poster Previews .....	20
Part 2 Poster Overviews .....	27
Poster Overview: Example 1 .....	30
Poster Overview: Example 2 .....	40
Quick Guide 2: Poster Overviews .....	50
 Finishing your poster overview .....	55
Part 3 How to make contact with visitors to your poster .....	59
1 Start with a greeting .....	60
2 Ask visitors if they would like a handout .....	61
3 Find out about your visitors .....	62
4 Offer to give a short overview .....	63
5 Invite questions at any time during your overview .....	64
6 Ask visitors if they have a specific question .....	65
7 Ask visitors if they need a more detailed explanation .....	66
8 Check that visitors understood your explanation .....	67
9 Offer to give visitors your contact details .....	68
10 Ask visitors for their contact details .....	69
11 Finish by thanking your visitors .....	70
 Part 4 Explaining your background and research .....	71
Part 5 How to stay in control of a poster discussion .....	81
1 Simplify your data or explanation to help people understand .....	82
2 Repair communication breakdown .....	83
3 Deal with a question you cannot answer .....	84
4 Deal with a question outside your field .....	85
5 Correcting someone who misunderstood your data .....	86
6 Introduce data that is the opposite of what a member of the audience is suggesting .....	87
7 Avoid a problem by agreeing with someone and then giving your own opinion .....	88
8 Explain something by going back to information you already presented .....	89
9 Explain something by moving forward to information not yet presented .....	90
10 Add information to explain something more fully .....	91

11 Respond quickly to a question by giving an estimate .....	92
12 Refer to your future research plans .....	93
13 Confirm the topic of a question .....	94
14 Emphasize the main points to help people understand .....	95
15 Answer a question by repeating something you already mentioned .....	96
16 Explain a technical term .....	97
17 Return to the original question if the discussion gets off the point .....	98
18 Returning to the main point .....	99
19 What to say when visitors arrive in the middle of an overview or discussion .....	100
20 Skip detailed information .....	101
21 Deal with a request for a paper .....	102
22 Check that visitors understand your answer .....	103
23 How to handle a question that is long or difficult to understand .....	104
24 Deal with a question that is not clear or difficult to understand .....	105
25 Clarify what you have said .....	106
26 Give examples to support your explanation .....	107
27 Acknowledge a point made by a visitor that may conflict with what you have said .....	108

Part 6 Poster Chairperson English .....	109
------------------------------------------------	-----

Part 7 Awards .....	113
Presenting an award for the best poster at a conference .....	114
Receiving an award: a short speech of acceptance .....	116

Poster Notes

I Too much detail can be a problem .....	15
II What is the take-home message? .....	49
III Academic written English and spoken English .....	56
IV How does a visitor interact with your poster? .....	80