

CONTENTS

Preface
Acknowledgments
Introduction
Part 1 Oral presentations	1
1 What makes a good presentation?	2
Part 2 Effective introductions	5
1 Thanking the chairperson	6
2 Opening comments	7
3 Thanking the organizers	8
4 Starting a presentation	10
5 Showing the contents of your presentation	12
6 Explaining the parts of your presentation	13
7 Starting the main part of the presentation	14
Part 3 How to handle sections in the main body	19
1 Starting a section	24
2 Emphasizing important information within a section	25
3 Giving mini-summaries at the end of sections	26
4 Concluding a section	28
5 Moving on to a new section	29
6 Forward movement	30
7 Referring back	31
8 Skipping information	32
9 Explaining more simply	33
10 Repeating information	34
11 Using questions to focus on important information in a section	35
12 Introducing a technical term	36
13 Defining a technical term	37
14 Contrasting known/accepted and new information	38
15 Introducing graphics (Step 1)	40
16 Talking about data shown in graphics (Step 2)	41
17 Focusing on important information in graphics	42
18 Describing an apparatus/machine/experimental set up	43
19 Using questions to focus on a topic or point	44
20 Correcting yourself	46
Part 4 Effective conclusions	47
1 Starting a conclusion	54
2 Introducing the main points of your conclusion	55
3 Degrees of certainty	56
4 Finishing a conclusion	57
5 Acknowledgments	58
6 Inviting questions when there is no chairperson present	59
7 Advice for effective conclusions	60
Part 5 Techniques for handling questions	63
1 Asking for repetition	66
2 Asking for clarification (1) Getting the questioner to rephrase a question	67
3 Asking for clarification (2) Getting the questioner to define a question	68
4 Asking for clarification (3) Getting the questioner to be specific	70
5 Fielding a question	72
6 Giving a general answer	74
7 Giving a tentative answer	76
8 Avoiding a question	77
9 Handling unrelated questions	78
10 Asking someone to contact you later	79
11 Handling multiple questions	80
12 Asking the questioner to repeat a question that you have forgotten	82
13 Introducing your answer to each question	83
14 Handling a question you cannot answer	85
15 Checking the questioner understands your answer	86
16 Showing you have finished an answer	88
17 How to prepare for questions	89
Part 6 Was that a question or a comment?	91
1 Formal comments	94
2 Informal comments	95
3 Comments that put forward an alternative explanation	96
4 Comments that bring in other data/work	97
5 Comments that are in general agreement but suggest an alternative	98
6 Comments that ask for a general answer/comment on a topic/point	99
7 Fielding a comment	100
8 Accepting an alternative point of view	101
9 Correcting someone who has misunderstood your data	102
10 Arguing against an alternative point of view	103
11 Generalizing	104
Part 7 Improving your question technique	105
1 Asking simple questions	106
2 Getting more information	108
3 Referring to specific information	110

4 Making comparisons .....	112	12 Nominating questioners .....	163
5 Asking for a general comment .....	113	13 Controlling difficult situations .....	164
6 Stating your own opinion and asking for a comment ...	114	14 Helping a presenter who cannot answer a question ...	165
7 Repairing communication breakdown .....	115	15 Asking a questioner to speak more loudly .....	166
Presentation evaluation checklist .....	116	16 Stopping questions that are too long .....	167
Part 8 English for poster presentations .....	119	17 Stopping answers that are too long .....	168
1 Making contact with and greeting visitors to your poster ...	122	18 When there is little or no time for Q and A .....	169
2 Finding out about your visitors .....	124	19 Questions from the chairperson .....	170
3 Giving a general idea of the contents of the poster .....	126	20 When there are no more questions .....	171
4 Giving an outline of the research .....	128	21 Moving on to the next presentation .....	172
5 Inviting questions at any time during your explanation	129	22 Announcing cancellations .....	173
6 Stating objectives .....	130	23 Closing a session .....	174
7 Giving an overview of the main points of the poster .....	131	25 Giving announcements .....	175
8 Introducing graphics .....	132	Part 10 Acting as a master of ceremonies (MC) at a banquet ...	177
9 Giving mini-summaries at the end of sections .....	133	1 Opening a banquet .....	178
10 Skipping information .....	134	2 Making general comments .....	179
11 Moving on to the next part of the poster .....	135	3 Introducing people .....	180
12 Repeating information .....	136	4 Inviting someone to come to the front and speak .....	181
13 Concluding your poster presentation .....	137	5 Thanking a speaker .....	182
14 Introducing the main points of your conclusion .....	138	6 Thanking people who have helped with the conference	183
15 Finishing your poster presentation .....	139	7 Proposing a toast .....	184
16 Inviting questions .....	140	8 Asking someone to propose a toast .....	185
17 Fielding questions .....	141	9 Giving announcements .....	186
18 Dealing with difficult questions .....	142	10 Closing a banquet .....	187
19 Giving a general answer .....	143	Part 11 Acting as a spokesperson in group discussions .....	189
20 Correcting someone who misunderstands your data ...	144	1 Reporting back .....	190
21 Welcoming newcomers to your poster .....	145	2 Summarizing .....	191
22 Thanking someone for visiting your poster .....	146	3 Reporting what other people said .....	192
23 Giving contact details .....	147	4 Talking about points in sequence .....	193
24 Getting contact details .....	148	5 Giving your own opinion .....	194
Part 9 Acting as a chairperson .....	149	6 Stalling .....	195
1 Opening a session .....	150	7 Concluding .....	196
2 Introducing yourself .....	151	Presentation notes .....	9
3 Stating the title of the session .....	152	I Preparing for a presentation .....	9
4 Stating the time limits .....	153	II Jokes and apologies .....	17
5 Asking people to switch off their mobile phones .....	154	III Preparing for questions .....	53
6 Introducing a speaker .....	156	IV The first couple of minutes are crucial .....	65
7 Asking a presenter to conclude a presentation .....	158	V Verbs in presentations .....	71
8 Stopping a presentation .....	159	VI Attend guest lectures whenever possible .....	85
9 Thanking a speaker .....	160	VII Should I read or speak from notes? .....	93
10 Inviting questions immediately after the presentation ...	161	VIII Improve your listening skills .....	109
11 Inviting more questions midway through the Q and A session .....	162	IX Don't forget the 's' ! .....	125
		X Join a class or form a presenters' group .....	155
		XI Pronouns in presentations: It, I, We, You .....	197