

Contents

Preface	5
Part one: Photographs.....	7
Part two: Experience of the A-Bomb	33
Our Family Record of the Atomic Bomb.....	35
The Fateful Day	45
Instant Inferno	49
I hate 'Hiroshima'	55
Hiroshima: What It Mean to Me and to You	115
A Memorial Tribute to Two Young Victims of the A-Bomb	124
The Appeal of a girl Survivor	129
My Son Died with When He was Seven Year Old	133
Mother, the Day A-bomb was Exploded	137
With Grief For My Lost Parents.....	139
Concerning a Child whose Mother was Pregnant When A-bombed-A Member of the Hiroshima microcephalia Association— "Kinoko Kai".....	143
My Experience Since August 6th 1945	147
In my sickbed	151
Mingled Feeings, Wrath and Lament	153
The Suffering of Hibakusha is Still Lasting	157
The Daily Life of Elderly A-bomb Survivors	160
Diabolic Radioactivity	164
The Appeal of Korean Survivor	167
Peace Education Based on A-Bomb Experience	171
Part three: A Round Table Conference of Victims	175
Part four: Voices of Hiroshima Citizens	185
Message (Mayor)	187
Peace is the Hope of All Mankind	189
Delayed War-Death.....	191
Hiroshima and Humanity	194
The Role of the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum.....	196
Pearl Harbor and Hiroshima	198
Part five: Voices of the World (By the same theme)	201
Dr. Arnold Joseph Toyenbee (England)	203

Dr. Alfred Kastler (France)	205
Mrs. Barbara Reynolds (America)	207
Dr. Günther Anders (Austria)	210
Mr. and Mrs Hook (Australia)	213
Mrs. Ingeborg Kuster (West Germany)	216
Mr. Ira Moris (America)	219
Mrs. Beate Seefeld (Switzerland)	221
Rt. Philip J. Noel-Baker (England)	224
Dr. Anatol Rapoport (Canada)	226
Dr. Siegmund Schmidt (West Germany)	228
Dr. Shin-ichiro Tomonaga (Japan)	229
Dr. Tibor Barther (Hungary)	231
Mr. Zänkner (East Germany)	235
Acknowledgements	236